

VISAS Teams for 2010:

Dallas County CC Dallas, Texas USA
The defending champions always bring a big and talented squad to VISAS. The club was a pioneer of Texas cricket which, surprisingly, has grown into a robust league with over 20 clubs in the North Texas Cricket Association. The Dallas County team features a number of players who have played internationally for the USA.

Dapto CC Dapto, NSW Australia
This team from just south of Sydney, Australia is back for the third time. A real group of characters, they are talented on and off the field.

Pigeon Mountain CC Auckland, New Zealand
These guys have been to several VISAS tournaments over the years and are always great value on and off the field.

Air New Zealand Christchurch, New Zealand
A group of Air NZ engineers making their first visit to VISAS. Different Air NZ teams have been here over the years but it will be interesting to see if the engineers live up to their rep.

University CC Los Angeles, California USA
Here for the third time to breathe in our fresh Victoria air and escape the paparazzi.

Sticky Wicket CC Victoria, BC Canada
VISAS host pub continues its long history of fielding a team of local and visiting players for VISAS week.

Bulldogs Victoria, BC Canada, and England
A combination of English and Victoria cricketers making their first entry into the VISAS.

Local Loco Milano Victoria and Milan, Italy
Ross Gower brings his many talents from Italy and the Milan Cricket Club as he joins forces with the Local Kitchen restaurant team for a joint entry to VISAS 2010. The Local Kitchen, a popular Wharf street eatery, has assembled the perfect group to mix with the Milanos, and this team will live up to the reputation of their country and their restaurant good food, good drink and pretty average (at best) cricket.

Wanderers Vancouver, BC Canada
An international team of players who are currently living and playing in Vancouver. Traditionally finish near the top of the table but can't quite get it done during the playoff rounds. Leadership has flatly rejected all calls for more sleep during the week, claiming that winning a championship with that approach would be 'tainted'.

Islanders Victoria, BC Canada
The Islanders are well known for many uniform changes, colourful blazers, a big squad and coming agonizingly close the championship. Finalists in 2004 and 2006 and semi-finalists last time out and are again mixing Canadian rugby talents with Australian cricketers and an odd South African in their quest to be in the mix again at the end of the week.

Pigs Victoria, BC Canada
The Pigs are a new entry from the Victoria cricket scene and are eager to test themselves against the best of the other teams.
